ABOUT THE BOSTON POLICE FOUNDATION

The Boston Police Foundation supports the brave men and women of the Boston Police Department by funding vital programs, equipment and technological capabilities to improve safety for our city and her police officers.

One of the foundation's primary focuses is to support the department's Community Policing initiatives. The Boston Police Foundation is committed to expanding this initiative by launching its Community Opportunities Program (COP).

COP aims to provide opportunities for Boston residents to engage with Boston Police in unique ways to foster healthy communities and relationships. COP programming focuses on professional development, health and wellness and community building while addressing issues that impact our city.
